

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

This Corporate Governance statement is current as at 30 June 2022 and has been approved by the Board of the Company on 26 September 2022.

The Board of Directors of Adrad Holdings Limited ('Adrad' or 'the Company') aims to achieve appropriate standards of corporate governance and has established corporate governance policies and procedures, where practicable, consistent with the ASX Corporate Governance Council's 'Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations 4th Edition (ASX Principles or Recommendation).

The ASX Recommendations set out recommended corporate governance practices for entities listed on the ASX that, in the ASX Corporate Governance Council's view, are likely to achieve good governance outcomes and meet the reasonable expectations of most investors in most situations. They are guidelines, not prescriptions. In light of the Company's size and nature, the Board considers that its current structure reflects a cost effective and practical approach to directing and managing the Company and its operations. As the Company's activities develop in size, nature and scope, the structure of the Board and its approach to corporate governance generally (and its adoption of the ASX Recommendations) will continue to be assessed. This statement outlines the main Corporate Governance practices of the Company disclosed under the ASX Recommendations, including those that comply with best practice and which unless otherwise stated, were in place during the whole of the period to the date of this statement.

Details have been included in this statement setting out the ASX Best Practice Recommendations with which the Company has and has not complied in the reporting period.

Details of the Company's corporate governance practices are set out below.

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	FOLLOWED	EXPLANATION
Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
Recommendation 1.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes Yes	The Board is governed by: (a) the Corporations Act 2001, (b) its formal constitution, and (c) by the ASX Listing Rules. The Board is responsible for providing overall strategic guidance and oversight of management. The role of the Board is to govern the Company rather than to manage it. In governing the Company, the Directors must act in the best interests of the Company as a whole. The Board derives its authority to act from the Company's Constitution. The Board has adopted a Board Charter which sets out the responsibilities of the Board in greater detail, including the following responsibilities: (a) delegating responsibility for the day-to-day operations and administration of the Company to the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director; (d) specifying limits on the authority delegated to the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director and the team of executives as appointed by the Company; (e) supporting the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director and implement the running of the general operations and financial business of the Company including instilling and reinforcing the Company's values, in accordance with the delegated authority of the Board; (f) communicating with management and other employees within the Group to facilitate the effective carrying out of their duties as Directors; (g) appointing the Chair of the Board and any Directors; (h) driving the strategic direction of the Company and defining the Company's purpose, ensuring appropriate resources are available to meet objectives and monitoring management's performance; (i) approving the Company's statement of values and Code of Conduct to ensure the desired culture within the Company is maintained and monitoring the implementation of such values and culture at all times;

RECOMMENDATIONS (4 TH EDITION)	FOLLOWED	EXPLANATION
Recommendation 1.1 continued...		(x) ensuring a high standard of corporate governance practice and regulatory compliance and promoting ethical and responsible decision making; and (y) procuring appropriate professional development opportunities for Directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as Directors effectively and to deal with new and emerging business and governance issues. A copy of the Company's Board Charter is available on the Company's website at www.adradholdings.com.au/investor.
Recommendation 1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes Yes	The Board is primarily responsible for identifying potential new Directors but has the option to use an external consulting firm to identify and approach possible new candidates for Directorship. The Board may decide the total number of Directors (not counting Alternate Directors), but that number must be at least three (two of whom must ordinarily reside in Australia). The Board may appoint a person to be a Director at any time except during a general meeting. Any Director so appointed holds office only until the next following Annual General Meeting when they are eligible for re-election. The Board undertakes appropriate background checks and requires existing and potential directors to provide evidence of their qualifications, police clearances and solvency checks.
Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	The roles and responsibilities of Directors have been formalised in letters of appointment which each Director has entered in to. The letters of appointment specify the term of appointment, time commitment envisaged, expectations in relation to committee work or any other special duties attaching to the position, reporting lines, remuneration arrangements, disclosure obligations in relation to personal interests, confidentiality obligations, and insurance and indemnity entitlements. The Company appoints senior executives via the execution of an Executive Employment Agreement. The contract terms of senior executives, who are Key Management Personnel, will be summarised in the Prospectus.

Recommendation 1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Company Secretary is accountable to the Board through the Chairman on all matters relating to the proper functioning of the Board. All directors have access to the Company Secretary. The appointment or removal of the Company Secretary is a matter for the Board. Details of the Company Secretary's experience and qualifications are set out in the Prospectus.
Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: (1) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (2) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (3) either: (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (B) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act. If the entity was in the S&amp;P/ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period, the measurable objective for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board should be to have not less than 30% of its directors of each gender within a specified period.	Partially	The Company's stated values and all the Company's related bodies corporate are committed to workplace diversity. The Company recognises the benefits arising from employee and Board diversity, including a broader pool of high quality employees, improving employee retention and motivation, accessing different perspectives and ideas and benefiting from all available talent. The Company is committed to inclusion at all levels of the organisation, regardless of gender, marital or family status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disabilities, ethnicity, religious beliefs, cultural background, socio-economic background, perspective and experience. The Board is committed to workplace diversity at the senior level and the Board level of the Company. The Board maintains oversight and responsibility for the Company's continual monitoring of its diversity practices and development of strategies to meet the Objectives. The Board is responsible for developing measurable objectives and strategies to meet the objectives of the Diversity Policy and monitoring the progress of the measurable objectives through the monitoring, evaluation and reporting mechanisms. The Board shall annually assess any measurable objectives (if any), and the Company's progress towards achieving them. Given the size of the Company, the scale of its operations and workforce, the Board is of the view that measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity are not required or practical at this time. As vacancies become available within the organisation the Company undertakes recruitment processes to ensure an appropriately diverse candidate pool is available to select successful applicants based on appropriate skills, experience and qualifications. As the Company has not established measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity, the Company has not reported on progress towards achieving them. The Company's diversity policy is available to be viewed on the Company's website at www.adradholdings.com.au/investor.

Recommendation 2.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the Board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each Director	Yes	The Board of Directors are considered to be independent when they are independent of management and free from any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with, or could reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with, the exercise of their unfettered and independent judgment. In the context of director independence, “materiality” is considered from both the Company and individual director perspective. The determination of materiality requires consideration of both quantitative and qualitative elements. Qualitative factors considered include whether a relationship is strategically important, the competitive landscape, the nature of the relationship and the contractual or other arrangement governing it and other factors that point to the actual ability of the director in question to shape the direction of the Company’s loyalty. The ASX Corporate Governance Council identifies factors relevant to assessing the independence of a director. These include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) the length of service of each director;</li> <li>(b) the length of service of each director;</li> <li>(c) employment in an executive capacity by the entity;</li> <li>(d) has a material business relationship or is a provider of material professional services to the entity;</li> <li>(e) is a substantial shareholder of the entity;</li> <li>(f) has a material contractual relationship with the entity; or</li> <li>(g) a close family tie with any person within any of the categories described above.</li> </ul>

Recommendation 4.2 The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Yes	The person who performs the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer roles are required to provide written declarations under s295A of the Corporations Act that, in their opinion; (a) the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true a fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity; and (c) that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively. The Chief Executive Officer, Donal Cormack and the Chief Financial Officer, Chris Newman have provided their declarations to the Board in relation to the 2022 Half Year Report.
Recommendation 4.3 A listed entity should disclose its process to verify the integrity of any periodic corporate report it releases to the market that is not audited or reviewed by an external auditor.	Yes	A periodic corporate report includes an entity's annual directors' reports, and in some cases, integrated reports (if prepared as a separate annual report) and sustainability reports. The preparation of public corporate reports is a similar methodology to the preparation of reports that are audited or reviewed by an external auditor. At all times the Company strives to satisfy itself that the report is materially accurate, balanced and provides investors with appropriate information to make informed investment decisions. The originator of the report ensures that all statements and financial information or calculations are supported by source documentation or factual evidence and have a reasonable basis. All assumptions within a document or financial model are disclosed and considered for appropriateness. Material accuracy, appropriate information and balanced reporting is achieved by layers of review undertaken within the organisation by senior managers, peer reviews, CEO review, Company Secretary review and final review and approval is undertaken by the Board. A majority of Directors' approval is required prior to the release of the document to the ASX. If there is any uncertainty regarding the materially accuracy of a corporate report, the Company will seek external advice or review of the document. Any errors or misleading information that may be published is corrected by the Company via a separate release as soon as the Company becomes aware of the error.

Recommendation 6.1 A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Yes	The Company operates under the continuous disclosure requirements of the ASX Listing Rules and aims to ensure that all information which may be expected to affect the value of the Company's securities or influence investment decisions is released to the market in order that all investors have equal and timely access to material information concerning the Company. The information is made publicly available on the Company's website following release to the ASX. The Company website also has a corporate governance page which provides access to the Company's constitution, Board and Committee charters, corporate governance policies and statements at www.adradholdings.com.au/investors.
Recommendation 6.2 A listed entity should have an investor relations program that facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	Yes	The Company engages external advisers to facilitate its investor relations program. Investor relations queries can be directed to Company Secretary. Information is also communicated to Shareholders as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) as the Company is a disclosing entity, regular announcements are made to the Australian Securities Exchange in accordance with the Company's continuous disclosure policy, including, half-year audit reviewed accounts, year-end audited accounts and an Annual Report;</li> <li>(b) the Board ensures the Annual Report includes relevant information about the operations of the Company during the year, changes in the state of affairs and details of future developments;</li> <li>(c) any proposed major changes in the Company's affairs are submitted to a vote of Shareholders, as required by the Corporations Act 2001;</li> <li>(d) the Board encourages full participation of Shareholders at the Annual General Meeting to ensure a high level of accountability and identification of the Company's strategies and goals. All Shareholders who are unable to attend these meetings are encouraged to communicate or ask questions by writing to the Company; and</li> <li>(e) the external auditor is requested to attend the annual general meetings to answer any questions concerning the audit and the content of the auditor's report.</li> </ul> The Board reviews this policy and compliance with it on an ongoing basis.

Recommendation 6.3 A listed entity should disclose how it facilitates and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Yes	The Board encourages full participation of shareholders at the Annual General Meeting and general meeting to ensure a high level of accountability and identification with the Company's strategy and goals. Important issues are presented to the Shareholders as single resolutions and Shareholder discussion of the resolutions is encouraged.
Recommendation 6.4 A listed entity should ensure that all substantive resolutions at a meeting of security holders are decided by a poll rather than by a show of hands.	No	The Constitution stipulates a resolution put to the vote at a meeting of members must be decided on a show of hand unless a poll is demanded. Noting that the Chairman can call a poll.
Recommendation 6.5 A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Yes	The Board aims to ensure that Shareholders are given the opportunity to engage with the Company as conveniently as possible. Shareholders are able to receive communications from the Company electronically via the Company's share registry, Computershare Investor Services. Shareholders are also able to contact the Company via its public email address cosec@adrad.com.au and the share registry via its online portal, Investor Centre – Australia https://www-au.computershare.com/Investor/#Home
